Keira's highlight:

Keira is a great example that you don't have to organize lots of big events in order to smash your fundraising target. Lots of fundraisers prefer to do 'little and often' – so lots of small events regularly throughout the year – such as street collections, cake sales, collection tins, pub quizzes, and more!

Keira's advice:

“Organising little and often fundraisers is the key to chipping away at your total throughout the year!”
