Sharan's highlight:

Sharan is a fantastic example of the true power of the supermarket bag pack! She started contacting supermarkets early enough in the term to secure one for just a few days before Christmas which, along with getting all of her family to help out on the day, helped her to raise over £900.00 in just one day!

Sharan's advice:

"Understand who your potential donors and sponsors could be and with that in mind start organising fundraising activities. This is to ensure you gain the maximum donations with your efforts. For example a bag pack would work well to raise money within your community; a cake sale can work well at your place of work; a quiz will attract students and helping with chores etc. might best work with family."
